

A Homily On Living In The Now

The world is nearly upside down, but that's okay. We are living in unprecedented times. Never before has humanity stood at the threshold of becoming more than human. – Sound strange? Well, we are at a threshold like no other in our human history. We are becoming beings of Light; we are returning to our true origins. And Mother Earth is assisting in this globalization of transcendence.

For the last couple of years now, we have heard a good deal about earth changes, unseasonal weather patterns, disappearances of whole species of animals, the escalation of violence and the rising up of vast numbers of people who are asking to be free. But what does it all mean?

We are in transition. And transformation is always preceded by a period of chaos as the old structures give way to the new. And this is what is happening to us geophysically and geopolitically right now.

If you have been following the course of this through the many excellent Lightworkers and scribes to the Ascended Masters, you are well ahead of things. But this essay is about how to be aware of all of this turbulence and transformation without losing one's cool; in fact, it's about staying centered in the Eternal Now.

The time has come for humanity to wake up to its highest potential, to become more than human, in fact, to become who and what we have always been: Divine Representatives of God in physicality. When you think about ETs, you think about science fiction or cover-ups, UFOs, or chilling media representations, but you probably never considered that we too are aliens, aliens to the star systems within the Galactic Federation, or brothers and sisters to the Brotherhood of Light. There are perhaps two to three hundred thousand Star Nations of Light out there, and they all serve God. Some look as we do, some do not, but all of these “beings of Light” have dedicated their lives to the Oneness of Creation that is the highest Reality in this Universe.

Relatively speaking, very few earth humans know of the Spiritual Hierarchy or of the 49 dimensions in Divine Cosmic Order, or the adherence to Universal Law that all “extra-terrestrials” follow without fail. These beings of Light live a “code of Love,” not human-style relational love, although they do have affection and loving kindness toward each other and their family groups and twin flames, but they all practice and live “heavenly Love.”

Thus, unconditional Love is the strongest force in this or any other Universe, and it coincides with “Light” or what is called the “Christed Universe.” We are a Universe of Light, Love and the White Light of Christ.

What makes this time so exciting is that we are about to enter into that Divine Brotherhood of Light; we are about to take our place as “Galactic Humans”; we are about to come Home. This planet has lived under tyranny for several thousand years, and it has come to a point where there are choices being made at an individual and national levels, and that is to be “of the Light” or not to be of the Light. This means that there is a tremendous upheaval in all the old structures within civilization, that all beings on the earth are coming awake and making their choice, that all life on this earth plane is elevating their consciousness to a higher dimensional level; and, this done, we are about to be received as the newest Star Nation of Light. With this will come new advances in all areas of living, including science, medicine, daily living, transportation, health, prosperity, ecology, government and religion. We are entering a New Age, the Age of Aquarius and about to truly understand what “living in the Eternal Now” truly means.

So transitional points, like the recent Vernal Equinox, have brought us through yet another “portal of Light,” another dimensional shift toward higher consciousness and Universal liberation. We are in the Eternal Now at this present time, and even as time itself is speeding up, we are increasingly going inward to find that great Divine Peace, that quietude that is Eternal. If you meditate, you already know this. But if you don’t, you may still be struggling with the conflict and frustrations of the outer world as it comes tumbling down around us. But if you go inward to the center of your heart and open to that Love, that unconditional loving self, you will achieve Peace. This is the true meaning of God’s Grace. It can’t be found in temples, churches, mosques, ashrams, or in the corporate world, yet it can be found while in any of these. Still , more importantly, it can be found within. Wherever you are is where God is; and, where God is there is always Peace.

And it is this Divine connection that will see you through ANY earthly trial or tribulation. No matter how great that may be. There is NOTHING stronger than God-Love, nothing more Eternal. – And once you have this love, you can give it out to wheresoever it is needed: the survivors of Japan’s triple tragedy; the common people in the Middle East and elsewhere who are struggling to be free; the people everywhere who are protesting traditional authority and demanding their human rights; to your own life circumstance, family and highest potential!

Affirmation of Peace:

I am God

I am Light

I am Love

I am All that I am

With Blessings of Love & Light from the Heart of God, and from mine,

AliceAnn
